Your project needs Prologue Project Management!

Prologue Project Management has rich heritage in and understanding of the performance, architectural and corporate sectors. They can offer you a tailored team to deliver your project within budget and deadline underpinned with a rigorous approach to health and safety.

Use the insight and experience of Prologue professionals to ensure your project achieves your objectives safely and on time.

Services

Performance

A Prologue managed project benefits from the managing director's heritage with theatre, ballet and opera companies. Utilise Prologue's inside perspective of this unique production environment where creativity is balanced with pragmatism, health and safety with logistics. Draw upon Prologue's hand on expertise of set and lighting design, management of crew logistics and of course working with performers.

Architectural

Some of the best known brands in the world have used members of the Prologue team for installation and Greenfield site projects in the UK and worldwide. Depending on the client's requirements, Prologue can either deliver the full Health and Safety plan or manage it's delivery by specific professionals. Managing teams at effective levels is paramount on these projects, something Prologue successfully achieve every time.

Corporate

Prologue understands that live events can effectively deliver business messages and build business relationships and the team have been doing just that for over 20 years. Working directly with clients or through a central events team, Prologue manage all aspects of the production including venue selection, event health and safety plans, specification & sourcing of the equipment, transport, sets and crew management. This allows the client to focus on their message and audience, supported if required Prologues preferred communications partner.

About Prologue

Founded in 2003 by Raymond Purvis, Prologue offers extensive project management experience across performance, architectural and corporate productions spanning 40 years. The core Prologue management team is supported by specialist professionals and organisations with a proven track record of success within their fields. The most appropriate team is assembled to match your specific requirements and deliver against agreed goals. Prologue has £10 million public liability insurance.

The founder Raymond Purvis
